Forecast for Sunday 08 Nov 2020

Weather: Some heavy and prolonged rain by dawn, then a mostly cloudy day, but rain will clear in the early afternoon, with some brighter spells in afternoon, especially across more northern parts with perhaps some sunshine. Cloud thickening again in evening to bring further outbreaks of rain.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Close to zero with persistent cloud down to 400 or 500m around dawn. Chance improving in early afternoon to become 40% with more broken cloud above 600m, though 900m across the north at times. Chance reducing in evening as further rain develops.

Visibility: Moderate occasionally poor beneath cloud, but often very poor at height. Becoming mostly good in the afternoon, though still a bit hazy. Falling again in rain through the evening.
